REPORT.

HEADQUARTERS OF THE POLICE DEPARTMENT,
OFFICE OF THE POLICE COMMISSIONER, 29 PEMBERTON SQUARE,
BOSTON, Dec. 1, 1921.

To His Excellency CHANNING H. COX, Governor.

YOUR EXCELLENCY:—As Police Commissioner for the City of Boston, I have the honor to present, in compliance with the provisions of chapter 291 of the Acts of the year 1906, a report of the police department for the year ending Nov. 30, 1921.

I beg to call to Your Excellency's attention that, in the report of the Police Commissioner for the year ending Nov. 30, 1920, was contained the following:—

Section 8 of chapter 291 of the Acts of 1906 provides in part as follows: "The city of Boston shall provide all such accommodations for the police of said city as said police commissioner may require." In April, 1919, I submitted to the mayor of Boston an exhaustive report on the Boston station houses, pointing out the deficiencies and the lack of necessary accommodations for the police force. I then and since have respectfully advised and recommended to the authorities of the city of Boston that they take appropriate action to make adequate provisions. Although my recommendations and requirements were not only reasonable but imperatively necessary, no one of them has been in any way adopted or met. The police department of the city of Boston to-day needs new station houses, and substantial additions and changes in others.

One of the most urgent needs of the Department in the matter of station houses, a need that is as yet not met, is a building to house Division 2 and the traffic division, with offices for the property clerk. Although I repeatedly made known my requirements, I was unable to make any progress at City Hall, and was obliged to proceed before the Supreme Judicial Court in mandamus. The full bench of the Supreme Judicial Court handed down its decision on Sept. 16, 1921, with a writ of mandamus issued against the mayor and the members of the city council. Since that time I am advised that the city council has voted to purchase an adequate site on which to erect a building that will meet the requirements of the Police Commissioner.

There has been no progress in the matter of the other new station houses asked for in 1919, and little progress in the matter of the additions and changes needed in those that will still serve, except in the matter of Division 8. Division 8 is known as the harbor police, and the recommendation to his honor the mayor in 1919 stated that the present station might be abandoned and a smaller one erected on the water front. It was not an immediate necessity, nor was it urged as such. As a matter of fact, advice has been received that plans have been accepted and that work has been commenced, or shortly will be commenced, on a single building to accommodate the harbor divisions of both the police and fire departments. The Police Department, of course, is glad to get a new station house for Division 8, but that was not one of the immediate and necessary improvements that were urged in my report to the mayor in 1919. There has been no attempt by the city council as a whole to meet my requirements or conform in letter or spirit to the act creating the single-headed Police Commissioner.

THE POLICE FORCE.

The police force as it exists to-day may fairly be said to be on an organized basis. Notwithstanding the fact that we hear and read of corruption, dishonesty and inefficiency in other large police forces, especially having to do with the illegal sale of liquor, the record of the present Boston police force, both as to integrity and ability stands out. The young men as a whole have rapidly grasped the principles of police business, and have exhibited a stability of character remarkable when their years are considered.

During the past year, by agreement with his honor the mayor, the police department was authorized to appoint eight policewomen. Six only were appointed, as this was the number satisfactory to him that the Commissioner was able to obtain from the list submitted by the Department of Civil Service and Registration. Another examination will be held in February by that Department, and from the list then established the Commissioner hopes to obtain two additional policewomen who he feels will fulfil the requirements that a policewoman should have. The six who have served in the Department during the past year are reported by their superior officers to have shown good capacity and have performed excellent work considering their experience.

At the present time the patrolmen in the police department number 1,672, including the women, and there are ten vacancies. As Your Excellency is aware, by the terms of the act creating the Police Commissioner, the number of patrolmen may not be increased, except by concurrent action of the mayor and the Police Commissioner, nor may the pay of the police be raised or lowered except by such concurrent action. The increase during the past year in the number of patrolmen authorized by the mayor was 40. And in this connection, I call Your Excellency's attention to the fact that the great single item of expense in the police department is the pay of the police, and that is fixed, as I have said, by the concurrent action of the mayor and the Police Commissioner. The present incumbent of the mayor's office, His Honor Mayor Peters, has been very liberal in the matter of the pay and increase in number of the force. I appreciate that any mayor of the city of Boston has many departments under his control, for which he is responsible, all looking to him for increased appropriations, but I cannot ignore the fact that the police department is in urgent need of at least 100 more patrolmen, a large proportion of whom is needed for traffic duties.

This matter of traffic, almost entirely motor-vehicle traffic, has become a serious problem, both in the way of handling it and of the increased expenditure it has brought upon the city. I am advised that Boston, having almost no State highways, gets no benefit from the automobile fees that are paid, and I feel impelled to state to Your Excellency that much of the past increase in expenditure of the police force, and much of the increase that is to come, arises from motor vehicle traffic, much of which comes from outside of Boston and a great deal of which merely passes through the city, having no connection with its business life.

THE LIQUOR SITUATION.

The liquor situation in Boston to-day, as regards the work of the police in relation thereto, is substantially different from what it was prior to the passage of the Eighteenth Amendment and the Volstead Act. There is not on our statute books to-day an act the same in all respects as the Volstead Act, and for that reason the handling of the liquor situation is and must be unsatisfactory. It is a fact that the amendment to the Constitution is now in existence, but there is no adequate enforcement act upon our statute books in this State, with the result that the State officers of the law come in for a great deal of well-meant but unjust criticism.

Last year the licensing board for the city of Boston petitioned the Legislature for an act that would of itself have been of great help. The licensing board asked that all soft-drink places, so called, be licensed and regulated. As a matter of fact, the licensing board knew, as this department certainly does, that many places, some of them formerly bar-rooms and others fitted up as bars, were ostensibly selling soft drinks, but in reality selling intoxicating liquor. The public could not understand why a barroom that could be strictly regulated when it was licensed to sell liquor, could not be regulated at all when it had no license of any description. And that is just the point — it requires no license; and even a conviction for the sale of liquor on the premises has but the effect of a fine with the business still going on. If these so-called soft-drink places were obliged to have a license, and the licensing board given the power to impose reasonable regulations and to take away the licenses for violations thereof, we would not have places, even under the shadow of our police stations, with barriers built in the windows so that the business carried on inside might not be observed. Should the Legislature pass an enforcement act, it is to be hoped it will substantially conform to the terms of the national act, so that we may all be working with equal authority.

In this connection, however, I call to Your Excellency's attention that for the year ending Nov. 30, 1921, this department made 2,015 prosecutions in the State court and 184 in the United States Court, making 2,199 all told, for violation of the liquor law. I do not, of course, refer to the arrests for drunkenness.

THE PROBLEM OF THE GANGSTER AND OTHERS OF LIKE CHARACTER.

Section 53 of chapter 272 of the General Laws includes as rogues and vagabonds "all other idle and disorderly persons, including therein those persons who neglect all lawful business and habitually misspend their time by frequenting houses of ill fame, gaming houses and tipling shops." That is the same provision contained in chapter 743 of the Acts of the year 1914.

The central municipal court construes the words "by frequenting houses of ill fame, gaming houses and tipling shops" as words of limitation and not words of illustration. Other courts do not take this view, and it has been contended that the view of the central municipal court is wrong, and that it should change its ruling rather than that the Legislature should change the law. The fact remains, however, that the central municipal court has jurisdiction over all central down-town Boston, and until the court changes its ruling, or the Legislature clarifies the law, the pool rooms, near-beer places, all-night restaurants, and other such places will continue to be the undisturbed gathering places of the criminal and criminally inclined. In 1920 I asked the Legislature to clarify its language and remove all misapprehension by striking out those words on which the misapprehension arose. The petition, though late in the session, was admitted, its necessity being apparent to the committee on rules of both branches.

The reason why the petition came in late in 1920 was this. It is perfectly apparent from the reading of the statute that, assuming the ruling of the municipal court to be correct, it is not enough to show that the particular defendant frequented places that were merely suspected of being houses of ill fame or gaming houses or tippling shops. It is necessary to show that the places frequented were actually such; and in the contemplation of the law no such places as tippling shops existed after the prohibition amendment came into effect. There are not, and were not at that time, recognized houses of ill fame or gaming houses, and after the passage of the Eighteenth Amendment, tippling shops as such, ceased to exist in the contemplation of the law. Boston having been a license city, however, the class of criminal and near criminal that the police desired to reach and should reach usually frequented places where liquor was sold by license, and it was commonly easily proved that the particular defendant did so frequent a tippling shop. Really the Commissioner in his petition to the Legislature in 1920 asked for no more power than the police enjoyed prior to the incoming of prohibition, but singularly enough the coming into effect of the prohibition amendment, together with the requirements of the municipal court in the matter of proof in the case of these idle and disorderly persons, severely hampered the police administration. The petition passed the Senate with little opposition, came into the House and suddenly was defeated. I must advise Your Excellency that so long as the central municipal court construes the words in that statute as it does, this police department is gravely hindered in the proper handling of the criminal and near-criminal population, which at present may gather in certain places, plotting its crimes without restraint. When the time arrives that the ruling is changed by the court, or the language clarified by the Legislature, this city will be unpopular for those gentry who desire to make it their headquarters.

A similar situation arises in the matter of gaming. The police department arrests and brings into the courts certain persons and charges them with "keeping a place, to wit: — in a certain portion of a certain street with books and apparatus for the purpose of registering bets on horse races." There is a conflict of decision among the judges, some of them holding that the street is not a place within the meaning of the statute, which means that this betting may go on, and it is going on without let or hindrance. This is another case in which any ambiguity in the matter of the statute should be cleared up.

A few days ago a Boston daily paper, referring to a New York case, said:—

"The case has interest here, because ever since the Boston police strike there has been a persistent effort to discredit the present police force. Whenever occurs an instance of individual inefficiency or unworthiness on the part of a Boston police officer, an effort is made to bring condemnation on the police force and on the Police Commissioner."

". . . It supports the new police force, and it will continue to do so, because that force has earned support."

". . . Instances of police inefficiency or unworthiness will always be properly condemned. The public will not tolerate mischievous efforts to twist such instances into a destructive application."

". . . Any undesirable members of Boston's police force will be weeded out, as they show their bad quality. Meantime, we are building up here the best police force in the country. . . ."

The Police Commissioner could not express the situation better than the editorial writer has done. It is a fact that there is a constant propaganda going on against the present police force. Assaults on police officers that were brought into court during the year ending Nov. 30, 1921, numbered one hundred and sixty-two. In one unfortunate instance a police officer was shot and killed, leaving a wife and a large family. It is said that the man who killed him is demented, and it may be so; but he had plenty of encouragement, both printed and spoken, to move his crazed mind to do the thing which he did. Application after application has been made for warrants against police officers, striving to fasten upon men who have merely done their duty criminal records and criminal punishment. Of those who are directly guilty of this malicious propaganda, I shall say nothing, but to those who give support and encouragement to it in any shape or form I say that they should take thought to themselves, and ask how they can expect the protection that they do expect if honest, courageous and worthy police officers are thus persecuted in the performance of their duty.

It is often found necessary to retain competent counsel for the prosecution of criminal cases in the lower courts, and sometimes to be represented by counsel in the higher courts; also to provide counsel especially to defend police officers unjustly accused.

It is quite possible that the present amount allowed by statute may be exhausted before the completion of the fiscal year, and it is my opinion that a Police Commissioner should be allowed to expend for counsel fees such sums as in his judgment are necessary, subject, however, to the approval of the Governor and Council. I do not mean that he should be obliged to go to the Governor and Council on each expenditure, but that he should not be hampered in the public performance of his duty by being confined to a specific statutory sum which cannot be increased, no matter what the exigency. He may at the present time incur other expenses for the police department which the city of Boston must pay on his requisition without approval of anybody. It would seem, therefore, reasonable that he should be allowed a sufficient sum for legal assistance with the approval of the Governor and Council, as before stated.

DANCING IN HOTELS.

Under section 181 of chapter 140 of the General Laws, a license is required for public dances given in halls, and the licensing authority has the right to impose, and does impose, reasonable terms and conditions in such license.

By the wording of the statute, a license is required only for such public dances "to which admission is obtained upon payment of money or upon the delivery of any valuable thing, or in which, after free admission, amusement is furnished upon a deposit in a coin controlled apparatus."

It has been held by the courts that the dancing in the dining rooms of hotels and cafés does not come under section 181 above quoted, and that therefore it may exist without such license as is required for all other kinds of public dances, and consequently without regulation by the licensing authority. While it is true that the person who dances in a hotel or café does not purchase a ticket at the door as for dancing in halls, yet he purchases the right to dance when he pays for his entertainment at the hotel or café. There is no difference in principle between the dances conducted at a hotel or café and those in a public hall, and no more reason for requiring license and regulation for dances in public halls than there is for dances in hotels or cafés in connection with their business. From the reports that come to me as Police Commissioner, it appears that dances in hotels and cafés need quite as much regulating as those held in public halls. The fact that as a general rule it requires a much larger outlay of money to indulge in dancing in hotels and cafés than in the public dance halls, to which people come for amusement whose means are limited, is no reason for discriminating against the latter or for assuming that they need licensing and regulating more than the hotel and café dancers. As a matter of fact, they do not.

In order that this discrimination may be removed and that all classes of public dancing be licensed and properly regulated, as one class is now, I am appending to this report a draft of a proposed bill amending section 181 of chapter 140 of the General Laws in such manner as to make it clear that the section covers all public dancing, whether the dance is given by itself or as incidental to some other business.

Very respectfully,

E. U. CURTIS,
Police Commissioner for the City of Boston.

BILL SUBMITTED.

AN ACT RELATIVE TO PUBLIC AMUSEMENTS, ETC.

SECTION 1. Section one hundred and eighty-one of chapter one hundred and forty of the General Laws is hereby amended by striking out the semicolon after the word "apparatus", in the ninth line of said section, and inserting in place thereof a comma, and after said comma the words: — or which are conducted in connection with or on the same premises with any hotel, restaurant, café or other business, — so that the same may read as follows: — Section 181. The mayor or selectmen may, except as provided in section one hundred and five of chapter one hundred and forty-nine, grant, upon such terms and conditions as they deem reasonable, a license for theatrical exhibitions, public shows, public amusements and exhibitions of every description, to be held upon week days only, to which admission is obtained upon payment of money or upon the delivery of any valuable thing, or by a ticket or voucher obtained for money or any valuable thing, or in which, after free admission, amusement is furnished upon a deposit of money in a coin controlled apparatus, or which are conducted in connection with or on the same premises with any hotel, restaurant, café or other business; and the mayor or selectmen may revoke or suspend such license at their pleasure, but they shall not grant a license for any such theatrical exhibitions, public shows or public amusements or exhibitions of any description whatever to be held upon Sunday, except as provided in chapter one hundred and thirty-six.

WORK OF THE DEPARTMENT.

Arrests.

The total number of persons arrested counting each arrest as that of a separate person, was 72,161 as against 58,817 the preceding year, being an increase of 13,344. The percentage of decrease and increase was as follows: —

	Per Cent.
Offences against the person	Increase, 23.50
Offences against property committed with violence	Increase, 11.85
Offences against property committed without violence	Increase, 19.39
Malicious offences against property	Increase, 42.57
Forgery and offences against the currency	Increase, 10.58
Offences against the license laws	Increase, 147.24
Offences against chastity, morality, etc.	Increase, 28.65
Offences not included in the foregoing	Increase, 19.62

There were 9,656 persons arrested on warrants and 47,044 without warrants; 15,461 persons were summoned by the court; 67,024 persons were held for trial; 5,137 were released from custody. The number of males arrested was 67,141; of females, 5,020; of foreigners, 26,297, or approximately 36.44 per cent; of minors, 8,724. Of the total number arrested, 19,752, or 27.37 per cent, were nonresidents. (See Tables X, XI.)

The average amount of fines imposed by the courts for the five years from 1917 to 1921, inclusive, was $137,448.96; in 1921 it was $193,901.80, or $56,452.84 more than the average.

The average number of days' attendance at court was 36,715; in 1921 it was 38,476, or 1,761 more than the average. The average amount of witness fees earned was $10,429.16; in 1921 it was $11,428.07, or $998.91 more than the average. (See Table XIII.)

Drunkennness.

In the arrests for drunkenness the average per day was $4. There were 9,187 more persons arrested than in 1920, an increase of 42.14 per cent; 38.89 per cent of the arrested persons were nonresidents, and 28.39 per cent were of foreign birth. (See Table XI.)

Bureau of Criminal Investigation.

The "identification room" now contains 61,710 photographs, 53,774 of which are photographs with Bertillon measurements, a system used by the department for the past twenty-two years. In accordance with the Revised Laws, chapter 225, sections 18 and 21, we are allowed photographs with Bertillon measurements taken of convicts, in the State Prison and reformatory, a number of which have already been added to our Bertillon cabinets. This, together with the adoption of the system by the department in 1898, is and will continue to be of great assistance in the identification of criminals. A large number of important identifications have thus been made during the year for this and other police departments, through which the sentences in many instances have been materially increased. The records of 584 criminals have been added to the records in this Bureau, which now contains a total of 42,842. The number of cases reported at this office which have been investigated during the year is 30,123. There are 35,699 cases reported on the assignment books kept for this purpose, and reports made on these cases are filed away for future reference. The system of indexing adopted by this Bureau for the use of the department now contains a list of records, histories, photographs, dates of arrest, etc., of about 185,000 persons. There are also "histories and press clippings," now numbering 8,402, made by this Bureau, in envelope form for police reference.

The finger-print system of identification which was adopted in June, 1906, has progressed in a satisfactory manner, and with it the identification of criminals is facilitated. It has become very useful in tracing criminals and furnishing corroborating evidence in many instances.

The statistics of the work of this branch of the service are included in the statement of the general work of the department, but as the duties are of a special character the following statement will be of interest:—

Number of persons arrested, principally for felonies	1,649
Fugitives from justice from other States, arrested and delivered to officers from those States	46
Number of cases investigated	30,123
Number of extra duties performed	2,199
Number of cases of homicide and supposed homicide investigated and evidence prepared for trial in court	160
Number of cases of abortion and supposed abortion investigated and evidence prepared for court	5
Number of days spent in court by officers	4,319
Number of years' imprisonment imposed by court, 135 years, 5 months.
Amount of stolen property recovered	$792,218.60

There were 30,987 persons arrested for drunkenness, being 9,187 more than last year, and 23,613 less than the average for the past five years. Of the arrests for drunkenness this year there was an increase of 43.24 per cent in males, and an increase of 25.07 per cent in females from last year. (See Tables XI, XIII.)

Of the total number of arrests for the year (72,161), 962 were for violations of city ordinances; that is to say, 1 arrest in 75 was for such offence, or 1.33 per cent.

Sixty-one and twenty-two one-hundredths per cent of the persons taken into custody were between the ages of twenty and forty. (See Table XII.)

The number of persons punished by fines was 16,703, and the fines amounted to $193,901.80. (See Table XIII.)

The value of property taken from prisoners and lodgers was $387,433.54.

Nineteen witnesses were detained at station houses; 137 were accommodated with lodgings, an increase of 90 from last year. There was a decrease of 1.17 per cent from last year in the number of insane persons taken in charge, an increase of about 22.9 per cent in the number of sick and injured persons assisted, and an increase of about .92 per cent in the number of lost children cared for.

The average amount of property stolen in the city for the five years from 1917 to 1921, inclusive, was $1,142,009.88; in 1921 it was $1,830,357.87, or $688,347.99 more than the average. The amount of property stolen in and out of the city which was recovered by the Boston police was $1,627,331.08, as against $1,402,880.92 last year, or $224,450.16 more.

Miscellaneous Work.

During the year the employees of this service responded to 1,665 trouble calls; inspected 506 signal boxes, 18 signal desks and 955 batteries; repaired 81 box movements, 19 registers, 27 polar box bells, 15 locks, 22 time stamps, 2 stable motors, 10 vibrator bells, 1 relay, besides repairing all bell and electric light work at headquarters and the various stations. The following boxes have been installed underground: 1 at Station 10, 3 at Station 14, and 2 at Station 17. Compliance with the prescribed districts is very much delayed on account of the New England Telephone and Telegraph Company being unable to lay ducts. Large tap bells for alarm calls have been installed in several of the stations to replace mechanical gongs which required winding and caused other trouble. A Ford car was supplied the signal service and has been in operation since June. It has increased the efficiency of the service to a great extent, as it enables trouble calls to be remedied much quicker, especially at night.

There are in use in the signal service 2 horses, 2 patrol wagons and 1 pung.

During the year the wagons made 40,144 runs, covering an aggregate distance of 58,941 miles. There were 33,687 prisoners conveyed to the station houses, 4,285 runs were made to take injured or insane persons to station houses, hospitals or their homes; and 681 runs were made to take lost children to station houses. There were 1,143 runs to fires and 388 runs for liquor seizures. In Memoriam.

Hon. Edwin Upton Curtis, Police Commissioner for the city of Boston, died at his home, 131 Bay State Road, at 2.30 P.M., March 28, 1922, of valvular heart trouble.

Mr. Curtis was born in Roxbury, Mass., March 26, 1861. Receiving his early education in the Roxbury grammar and Latin schools and also in a private school at Farmington, Me., he entered Bowdoin College in the fall of 1878, graduating in the class of 1882 with the degree of A.B. In 1885 he received the degree of A.M., and in 1914 the degree of LL.D. from the same college. From 1897 to 1912 he served as overseer of the college, and as trustee of the college from 1912 until his death.

Mr. Curtis was admitted to the Suffolk Bar in 1885, and formed a law partnership with William Gardner Reed under the firm name of Reed & Curtis.

He early took an interest in politics and became Secretary of the Republican City Committee in 1888. In 1889 he became city clerk of Boston, and held that position two years, after which he resumed the profession of law and built up a large practice. In 1894 he received the Republican nomination for mayor and was elected by a plurality of more than 2,500.

In 1896 he became a member of the Metropolitan Park Commission and served in that office until Oct. 1, 1897, when he resigned to become the Republican candidate for mayor. He was reappointed a member of the Metropolitan Park Commission on May 26, 1898, and served in that office continuously under successive reappointments until his appointment as Police Commissioner. In 1906 he was appointed Assistant United States Treasurer in Boston, and held that office until 1909, when he became collector of the Port of Boston, which position he occupied for four years. He was elected and served as a delegate to the Constitutional Convention of 1918 and 1919.

On the death of Police Commissioner Stephen O'Meara, Mr. Curtis was appointed to that office by Governor McCall, and on Dec. 30, 1918, took the oath of office.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

REPORT.

HEADQUARTERS OF THE POLICE DEPARTMENT,
OFFICE OF THE POLICE COMMISSIONER, 29 PEMBERTON SQUARE,
BOSTON, Dec. 1, 1922.

To His Excellency CHANNING H. COX, Governor.

YOUR EXCELLENCY:—As Police Commissioner for the city of Boston I have the honor to present, in compliance with the provisions of chapter 291 of the Acts of the year 1906, a report of the Police Department for the year ending Nov. 30, 1922.

On March 28, 1922, the Police Department suffered a great loss in the sudden and unexpected death of the Hon. Edwin U. Curtis, Police Commissioner for the city of Boston. Despite great opposition and while not in the best of health, he pursued a course which he believed to be for the best interests of Boston, and produced a young, active and vigorous Police Department, the equal of any police force in any municipality in the United States. Untiring work in the building up of a practically new police force for the city of Boston gradually undermined his health, and after many years of valuable service to his city, State and country he was suddenly stricken when about to reap the reward of his labor.

On April 3, 1922, I assumed control of a Police Department which had then been raised to a high degree of efficiency through unsparing and unselfish sacrifice on the part of Mr. Curtis.

RELATIVE TO THE LIQUOR PROBLEM.

The enforcement of the prohibition amendment to-day is of as great and vital importance as it was when the prohibition amendment went into effect three years ago. The action of the electorate of Massachusetts in the State election on November 7 in rejecting chapter 427 of the Acts of 1922, which was an act to carry into effect, so far as the Commonwealth of Massachusetts was concerned, the Eighteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States, has a tendency to impede and hamper the effective enforcement by the Police Department of this prohibition amendment.

Under General Laws, chapter 138, section 75, a police officer may arrest without warrant "any person whom he finds in the act of illegally . . . transporting . . . intoxicating liquor." There is, however, no statute now defining the offense of illegally transporting intoxicating liquor, the existing provisions of law having been omitted when chapter 138 was enacted. If, therefore, those provisions as to transportation, as found in Revised Laws, chapter 100, and subsequent acts in addition and amendment thereto, are put back upon the statute books, with such changes as are necessary in view of the present situation, it will enable the police substantially to curtail the activities of the so-called "bootlegger."

To-day in Boston we find ourselves in an unfortunate situation, with numerous appeals from the district courts of convictions of violations of the liquor laws increasing the size of the docket of the Criminal Superior Court for Suffolk County, and the district attorney for that county practically forced to dispose of these cases by fines, although many of them are appeals from prison sentences of the lower court. Experience shows that trial by jury of these liquor appeal cases is not successful. Jail sentences are very rarely given in the State court for violations of the liquor law.

For the year ending Nov. 30, 1922, this Department made 359 prosecutions in the State court and 17 in the United States court for violations of the various drug laws, and for the same period, not including arrests for drunkenness, 3,371 prosecutions in the State court and 93 in the United States court, a total of 3,464 cases for violations of the liquor law, as compared to a total of 2,199 cases prosecuted for violations of the liquor law for the year ending Nov. 30, 1921.

RELATIVE TO THE CARRYING OF GUNS, PISTOLS AND CONCEALED WEAPONS.

In the matter of granting permits for the carrying of firearms, the law which our Legislature passed last year in order to safeguard the citizens of this Commonwealth from irresponsible persons carrying guns and pistols is being circumvented and evaded, and unless immediate steps are taken to have Congress pass a uniform act restricting and limiting the sale and advertisement for sale of revolvers and weapons of self-defense, small headway in the matter of preventing vicious and irresponsible persons from obtaining deadly weapons will have been effected, inasmuch as mail order houses with places of business outside of this Commonwealth are offering for sale firearms absolutely without restriction.

Under the present system in this State of granting permits to carry firearms, an unnaturalized person can obtain a permit to carry a pistol or revolver. In my opinion no such permit should ever be given to an unnaturalized person, although it must be granted that many of our unnaturalized residents are of a fine type. In addition, I am of the opinion that under no circumstances should a permit ever be granted to a minor, or to any person who has been convicted of a felony, or as a user or purveyor of drugs. Under the present law it is a criminal offence to sell a firearm to a minor under fifteen years of age. This law should be changed so that it is a criminal offence to sell, offer to sell, or furnish firearms to a minor.

I believe that a statute should be passed by the next Legislature punishing a person who commits or attempts to commit a crime, while armed with a firearm and with no permit to carry the same, with imprisonment for not less than two and one-half years nor more than five years in the State Prison in addition to the sentence given for the punishment of the crime for which he was arrested; and also that there should be a statute passed that if any person while armed with a pistol or revolver with no permit to carry the same either commits or attempts to commit a felony, the fact that he had no permit to carry the revolver or firearm should be considered as prima facie evidence of his intention to commit the felony for which he was apprehended.

In my opinion to check the lawlessness, viciousness and crime which are sweeping the country, strenuous effort should be made to make it impossible for a person of vicious or irresponsible temperament to obtain a firearm, and in addition it should be made so serious a crime to carry a firearm without a permit that there will be considerable hesitancy on the part of any individual to carry a firearm unlawfully.

In relation to the law of carrying concealed weapons, this law should be changed so as to prevent any person from carrying a pistol or revolver concealed in any vehicle without a permit for such firearm, and a more severe punishment should be given for a violation of the same.

TRAFFIC.

The problem of the orderly regulation of automobile traffic in the city of Boston presents a most serious question. When the yearly increase in the number of automobiles, both for pleasure and business purposes, is compared with the permanency of the width of the streets of Boston, the irrefutable conclusion is that there is an imperative need of an increase in the number of policemen for traffic duty, and the creation of suitable sites for parking purposes. Once the parking problem in Boston is solved, congestion of traffic will be eliminated.

Regulation of pedestrian traffic is as important a problem and requires as much intensive study as the matter of guiding and directing vehicular traffic.

During my incumbency in office I have been the recipient of numerous demands from merchants, school authorities and other sources for traffic officers at various crossings in order to safeguard pedestrians using the same. I regret that I have been unable to comply with these requests in many instances. I have had several conferences with His Honor Mayor Curley relative to an increase of patrolmen in this Department to the number of at least one hundred, and he agrees with me that the situation as regards traffic conditions alone warrants such an increase, and that the only reason why he cannot grant my request at once is because of the financial condition of the city. At one of these conferences it was suggested that if the cities of the Commonwealth could, by an act of the Legislature, secure part of the moneys now collected from registration fees or from a tax on gasoline, if such a tax is imposed, a part of such funds thus collected could be applied to the cities and towns of the Commonwealth to care for traffic conditions. In the event of such legislation being passed, the mayor has signified his willingness to concur with me in my recommendation. I am of the opinion that this request has great merit and that dangerous crossing points should be covered by traffic officers. They are crossed and recrossed daily by school children, and this Department should have a sufficient number of men to properly safeguard them. This is a service which is of such vital importance that the citizens of Boston can rightfully demand that it be granted to them.

The creation of a Traffic Court to relieve the congestion in the criminal session of the Municipal Court for the city of Boston, caused by the ever-increasing number of automobile cases, I believe to be advisable. Such a court in my opinion could effectively and speedily dispose of cases of this nature at a weekly session, and accordingly would be of great benefit to the Police Department, inasmuch as it would eliminate the present necessity of requiring many police officers being absent from their posts several days each week.

RELATIVE TO HOUSING ACCOMMODATIONS.

Since I have assumed office I have made a personal inspection of every police station and house of detention in Boston under my control. As a result of this investigation I have caused repairs to be made in many of the buildings, including interior and exterior painting, installation of shower baths, thus eliminatng old-fashioned bath tubs, replacing old and worn-out beating plants, and, in general, have done much work making for better sanitary conditions. I have also taken up this matter with the mayor, and he has agreed to allow me $500,000 next year outside of my regular appropriation to continue this much needed line of improvement in the conditions of police buildings.

The elimination of cells in the basement of station houses is a matter which I also have taken up with the municipal authorities, and part of the above-mentioned appropriation will be used for this purpose.

The new police station for Division 8, Harbor Police, situated on Commercial Street, is nearly completed and will probably be ready for occupancy in the early spring, thus providing more roomy and sanitary quarters for that Division.

In the matter of the new police building to be constructed on the land purchased on Sears Street, new bids have been received on the same, and I have every reason to expect that with the co-operation of the mayor and city council that this new building will soon be under construction. This building when completed will house Division 2 and the Traffic Division, with offices for the Property Clerk.

In addition, the mayor has signified to me his desire to have taken by right of eminent domain the building now occupied by the Police Commissioner and the Superintendent of Police in Pemberton Square, and erecting in place thereof a modern office building to provide suitable accommodations for these departments which at present are congested and crowded in old-fashioned and ill-adapted buildings.

Very respectfully,

HERBERT A. WILSON,

Police Commissioner for the City of Boston.

WORK OF THE DEPARTMENT.

Arrests.

The total number of persons arrested, counting each arrest as that of a separate person, was 77,653 as against 72,161 the preceding year, being an increase of 5,497. The percentage of decrease and increase was as follows:—

	Per Cent.
Offences against the person	Decrease, 2.36
Offences against property committed with violence	Decrease, 21.67
Offences against property committed without violence	Decrease, 15.13

	Per Cent.

Offences against the license law	Increase, 52.51
Offences against chastity, morality, etc.	Decrease, 10.63
Offences not included in the foregoing	Increase, 8.49

There were 10,786 persons arrested on warrants and 49,372 without warrants; 17,495 persons were summoned by the court; 73,838 persons were held for trial; 3,815 were released from custody. The number of males arrested was 72,572; of females, 5,081; of foreigners, 29,078, or approximately 37.44 per cent; of minors, 7,391. Of the total number arrested, 20,504, or 26.40 per cent, were nonresidents. (See Tables X, XI.)

The average amount of fines imposed by the courts for the five years from 1918 to 1922, inclusive, was $159,841.56; in 1922 it was $236,215.50, or $76,373.94 more than the average.

The average number of days' attendance at court was 36,051; in 1922 it was 42,481, or 6,430 more than the average. The average amount of witness fees earned was $10,529.70; in 1922 it was $13,839.32, or $3,311.62 more than the average. (See Table XIII.)

Drunkenness.

In the arrests for drunkenness the average per day was 103. There were 6,656 more persons arrested than in 1921, an increase of 21.48 per cent; 25.12 per cent of the arrested persons were nonresidents, and 39.50 per cent were of foreign birth. (See Table XI.)

Bureau of Criminal Investigation.

The "identification room" now contains 62,960 photographs, 54,342 of which are photographs with Bertillon measurements, a system used by the Department for the past twenty-three years. In accordance with the Revised Laws, chapter 225, sections 18 and 21, we are allowed photographs with Bertillon measurements taken of convicts in the State Prison and reformatory, a number of which have already been added to our Bertillon cabinets. This, together with the adoption of the system by the Department in 1898, is and will continue to be of great assistance in the identification of criminals. A large number of important identifications have thus been made during the year for this and other police departments, through which the sentences in many instances have been materially increased. The records of 615 criminals have been added to the records in this Bureau, which now contains a total of 43,457. The number of cases reported at this office which have been investigated during the year is 26,927. There are 37,032 cases reported on the assignment books kept for this purpose, and reports made on these cases are filed away for future reference. The system of indexing adopted by this Bureau for the use of the Department now contains a list of records, histories, photographs, dates of arrest, etc., of about 190,000 persons. There are also "histories and press clippings", now numbering 8,555, made by this Bureau, in envelope form, for police reference.

The finger-print system of identification which was adopted in June, 1906, has progressed in a satisfactory manner, and with it the identification of criminals is facilitated. It has become very useful in tracing criminals and furnishing corroborating evidence in many instances.

The statistics of the work of this branch of the service are included in the statement of the general work of the Department, but as the duties are of a special character the following statement will be of interest: —

Work at Station 12, the installation of boxes 3, 4, 42 underground, and the laying of about 4,000 feet of cable has been delayed since the 1920 prescribed district.

There are in use in the signal service 1 horse, 1 White truck and 1 Ford touring car.

During the year the wagons made 46,888 runs, covering an aggregate distance of 71,289 miles. There were 37,064 prisoners conveyed to the station houses, 5,051 runs were made to take injured or insane persons to station houses, hospitals or their homes; and 503 runs were made to take lost children to station houses.
